Doctrinal Statement

SECTION 1. NATURE OF DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

Our doctrinal statement is not a “creed”. In a sense, the whole Bible is our creed. We recognize the existence of many differences in interpretation among genuine Christians. We are, however, convinced that to avoid a looseness which might result in the admission of unbelievers into our Fellowship, or even of Christians who are unprepared to co-operate in the Fellowship and the work to which God has called us, certain minimum Biblical doctrinal standards must be established, the rejection of any of which shall be grounds for ineligibility to membership. These essential doctrinal statements follow in Section 2.

SECTION 2. THE STATEMENT

1. We believe in one God, Maker of all things and being in Trinity of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
2. We believe that the Son of God, Jesus Christ, became incarnate, was begotten by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, and is true God and true man.
3. We believe the Bible in its entirety, to be the inspired Word of God.
4. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, the eternal life of the believer and the separation of the lost.
5. We believe in the personal salvation of believers through the shed blood of Christ.

6. We believe in sanctification by the blood of Christ, in personal holiness of heart and life, and in separation from the world.
7. We believe in Divine healing through faith, and that healing is included in the Atonement.
8. We believe in the baptism in the Holy Ghost, accompanied by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives utterance (Acts 2:4), as distinct from the new birth, and in the nine gifts of the Spirit listed in 1 Corinthians 12, as now available to believers.
9. We believe in the Christian's hope – the imminent, personal return of the Lord Jesus Christ.
10. We believe in intensive world evangelization and missionary work In accordance with the Great Commission, with signs following.

SECTION 3.

The acceptance of the ten doctrinal points stated above in Section 2 is essential to membership in the Corporation and in the Chapters, and while we recognize the obligation of maintaining spiritual love and union toward all true Christians who may not accept all of these doctrinal points, and welcome them to our Fellowship gatherings, they are not permitted any voice in the conduct of our activities and are ineligible to membership in the Corporation or in the Chapters.
