Paul went to church all his life... but rebelled in his teenage years.

From Preacher's kid to rebellious teen, his life included alcohol, partying and running from God.
A broken engagement led to a few hours in jail in 1977.

After marriage in 1979 to wife Marlene, they moved from Brandon to Regina and settled down. They have been blessed with 3 married children and 8 grandchildren.

Things seemed to go well with a career in technology. Paul was an integral part of many technology firsts in Saskatchewan and Canada.

But something was missing. For all the successes, there were many questions and a load of stress.

In 1990, the light went on for Paul and he received Jesus as Lord and Savior. He will share healings, favor and blessings from his life. You will be encouraged and blessed.
